Rob Wright's tip of the day

He's A Latchico (4.10 Lingfield Park)

This gelding has developed into a smart dual-purpose performer in the past year, winning twice over hurdles at Fontwell Park before successfully switching back to the Flat at Sandown Park in July.

He was well beaten on his next three starts but returned to form when a good second to the progressive Classic Anthem in a strong contest back at Sandown last month.

This longer trip and better ground are both in his favour and He's A Latchico can make the most of a lenient handicap mark in this sphere.
